Nuclear threats:

- * Over 15,000 nuclear weapons remain deployed, many on hair-trigger alert.
- * Conflicts between nuclear-armed States could result in nuclear-weapons use by accident or miscalculation.
- * Over $100 billion spent annually on nuclear weapons - could instead help meet Sustainable Development Goals.

Action by the UN and Civil Society

The UN has decided to commence negotiations on a nuclear ban treaty in 2017 and hold a High Level Conference on Nuclear Disarmament in 2018. States are obligated under the NPT to achieve nuclear disarmament.

Join us to discuss how civil society and parliamentarians can cooperate to make these UN processes a success.
