

Inspiring and effective policies for Peace and Future Generations

Showcasing a selection of winners and finalists of the 2024 World Future Policy Award on Peace and Future Generations

plus the international launch of the World Future Council Digital Infohub on Peace Policies and a pre-recorded performance of the
All for One Anthem for Peace

Tuesday October 28, 13:15–14:45 (Eastern Time USA)

Bahá'í International Community UN Office, 866 UN Plaza, New York
(and online)

Registration required

(registration deadline for in-person attendance is 3pm Friday Oct 24)

Registration

Featured policies:

- The Moriori Peace Covenant – Nunuku's Law
(from Rēkohu, New Zealand)
- Wales' Well-being of Future Generations Act
- Costa Rica's Abolition of the Army and Policy of Active Neutrality
- Nigeria's National Action Plan on Youth, Peace
and Security
- Canada's Feminist International Assistance Policy.

Speakers:

- Teresa Bergman (New Zealand/Germany)
*Project Manager and Research Team Lead World
Future Policy Award 2024*
- Neshan Gunasekera (Sri Lanka/Germany)
CEO, World Future Council
- Jacob Ellis (Wales)
Director for External Relations and Culture at the Office of the Future Generations Commissioner for Wales
- Alimi Salifou (Nigeria)
Founder, Partnership for Future Generations in Africa.
- Maui Solomon (Moriori/Ngai Tahu, Rēkohu NZ).
*Barrister and Indigenous Peoples Advocate.
Chair and Chief Negotiator, Moriori Imi Settlement Trust*
- Paddy Torsney (Canada/USA)
Permanent Observer of the Inter-Parliamentary Union to the UN
- Roberto Zamora (Costa Rica)
International Lawyer. Board Member, International Association of Lawyers Against Nuclear Arms.

